

Verb: Act:

Present:

- SP: They act like a child
- PC: They are acting like a child
- PP: They have acted like a child
- PPC: They have been acting like a child

Past:

- SPa: They acted like a child
- PaC: They were acting like a child
- PaP: They had acted like a child
- PaPC: They had been acting like a child

Future:

- SF: They will act like a child
- FC: They will be acting like a child
- FP: They will have been acted like a child.
- FPC: They will have been acting like a child.

Verb: Sing:

Present:

- SP: You sing a song.
- PC: You are singing a song which is my favourite
- PP: You have sung a song which I asked you to sing.
- PPC: You have been singing that song for two days.

Past:

- SPa: You sang the song
- PaC: You were singing the song.
- PaP: You had sung the full song
- PaPC: You had been singing that song.

Future:

SF: You will sing the song.

FC: You will be singing that song.

FP: You will have sung the song.

FPC: You will have been singing that song.

Verb: Do:

Present:

SP: I do the work

PC: I am doing the work

PP: I have done the work.

PPC: I have been doing the work.

Past:

SPa: I did the work.

PaC: I was doing the work

PaP: I had done the work

PaPC: I had been doing the work

Future:

SF: I will do the work.

FC: I will be doing the work.

FP: I will have done the work.

FPC: I will have been doing the work.